The Diversity Center of Northeast Ohio has been dedicated to eliminating bias, bigotry, and racism since 1927.

Our programs work to build inclusive school environments that promote acceptance and mutual respect. Each year, thousands of students learn how to become leaders and positive change agents in their schools and communities by participating in our workshops, camps, conferences, and retreats.

Together we can create communities where all people are connected, respected, and valued.

Accepting Counselor Applications for Fall High School Retreat

Are you a young adult (18+) who is interested in developing leadership and mentoring skills?

Would you like to learn more about social justice topics and work with youth to identify solutions?

Every year, DCNEO trains a cohort of young adult counselors who serve as facilitators, guides, and mentors during the Fall Retreat. Counselors are responsible for assisting students as they participate in activities and simulations. The camp counselor position is an unpaid volunteer experience that requires a background check.

DCNEO's Fall High School Retreat gathers Northeast Ohio high school students and educators for 2 days of exploring diversity and inclusion topics through experiential activities and discussions.

Counselor Duties & Experiences:

Essential Duties:

- Facilitate designated DCNEO curriculum during Fall Retreat
- Help lead icebreakers and activities
- Model positive active participation in & out of sessions
- Build relationships with students

Rewarding Experiences:

- DCNEO Counselor Facilitation Orientation & Training
- Leadership and facilitation experience
- Relationship building with students, educators, and counselors
- Meals and lodging for the duration of camp
